„Justice“

Justice! Where's Your justice, oh Lord!

We wander in this world like a long lost tribe
Searching for the signs of Your justice near and far
You promised to the poor, to the weak, to the hungry
You promised us Your peace in a just, just world.

Justice! Where's Your justice, oh Lord!

We wander in this desert, we are hungry for Your love.
We long for Your touch, Your touch in our lives.
You promised to the sick, to the orphans, to the widows,
You promised us Your peace in a just, just world.

Let Your justice roll down like a mighty stream, Lord.
Let Your justice roll down, roll down.
Let it roll on like a stream.

Justice!
Oh Lord please where is your peace?
Let it roll, let it rain, let it flow, let it roll on down like a stream.
